Searsport, Maine

Built In 1874

Carriage House Inn

"Come Stay In One Of Maine's Most Photographed Historic Homes"

We offer an authentic Bed and Breakfast experience in a home where sea captain's gathered and a famous artist found his inspiration. While you're here, browse the many local antique shops, visit the extraordinary Penobscot Marine Museum, walk the trails at Moose Point State Park or stroll the rocky shore of the Bay.

Searsport is also conveniently located in the Mid-Coast region between Camden and Bar Harbor, both easy day trips to enhance your Maine Getaway.

Recently filmed for HGTV's
"If Walls Could Talk" series, and
New England's Bill Green's Maine

- Listed on the National Register of Historic Places
- Listed in Fodors Maine Coast Guide as "Highly Recommended"
- Showcased in America's Painted Ladies and Historic Inns of the Northeast
- Featured in Yankee, Downeast, American Heritage, and Bangor Metro magazines
